WEBSTER BIRTHPLACE OPEN.

FRANKLIN, N. H., Aug. 28 .- The Daniel Webster Birthplace was formally opened to-day. Thousands gathered and many are here to-night for the exercises which close to-morrow. In the absence of ex-Senator Chandler his intended remarks were read by G. H. Moses of Concord. James O. Lyford spoke for Senator Gallinger. Gov. Felker of New Hampel and ex-Congressman Samuel McCall of and ex-Congressman Samuel McCall of F. M. Parsons said in part:
"We are met here to celebrate the fact that this spot is now placed beyond the touch of hands ignorant or thoughtless of Webster life and service. For fifteen years Webster's father held this outpost of civilization, his house being last upon the Indian trail to Canada.

"Mr. Chandler has been the moving spirit in all that has been done and is entitled to the credit. This meeting is his persuas suggestion and plan. Because of illness, stood from which I am happy to say Mr Chandler is now recovering, he is unable to be present.

"'I still live,' said Webster. Then it is said he died. But the personality of the man could not die. What he was, away as with a sponge by a physical Webster still lives.

There was little advance praise et "Adele," a musical farce seen last night at the Longacre Theatre, and its attractive qualities may for that reason have exerised a greater charm over the audience which revelled so frankly in its tunerul lodies, its interesting if mechanical

As if the French origin of the piece were not sufficiently obvious from these facts it might be added for the final persuasion of the obstinate, that there stood during the progress of the second act a bed in an alcove. What stronger evidence could one demand of the Gallio origin of "Adele"?

It was the vivacious and graceful performance of this little piece—wherever it may have come from—that diverted last night's audience and made the first effort of the New Era Producing Company, said to be backed by William Ziegler, altogether successful. Few farces with the aid and comfort of music have possessed so fully the spirit that stage managers less skilful than Ben Teal have tree this letter part of October. Widow Also Objects to the Way in Which $2,500,000 Fund Was Made Up.

A dispute between Mrs. Kath Davis Pulitzer and the executors and trustees under the will of her husband, Joseph Pulitzer, over stock now worth $87,600 was disclosed in the Supreme Court yesterday when Mrs. Pulitzer filed her answer to the suit brought by the trustees for the judicial construction of Mr. Pulitzer's will. The attorneys in the case insisted since the action brought that the action was entirely friendly and was of no importance, but Mrs. Pulitzer's answer shows that she believes the trustees are not treating her fairly in several important respects. The trustees are George L. Rives, J. Angus Shaw, Frederick N. Judson, her son, Raiph Pulitzer, and the Union Trust Company.

Through her attorneys, Carter, Ledyard & Milburn, Mrs. Pulitzer says that under the will of her husband the trustees were directed to set aside a fund of $2,500,000, described in the suit as the $2,500,000, described in the suit as the "widow's trust," the income of which was to go to Mrs. Pulitzer for life and after her death the principal was to go to her children. She said that in the property set aside by the trustees to make up the $2,500,000 fund for her benefit were 2,000 shares of General Electric stock out of Mr. Pulitzer's total holdings of 5,000 shares, the total worth $735,000 at the time of his death. time of his death.

Capital Stock Increased.

Mrs. Pulitzer says that after the 2,000 shares were set aside as part of the $2,-500,000 fund for her benefit the General Electric Company increased its capital stock from $80,000,000 to $105,000,000 and declared a stock dividend of three-widely Known Composer Was Organist of Calvary Baptist Church.

Edward M. Bowman, the composer and organist, died on Wednesday at his home. 799 East Seventeenth street, Flatbush, in his sixty-fifth year. He was a descendant of Nathaniel Bowman, who emigrated with John Winthrop from England in 1630; and on his mother's side from Richard Warren and Sarah Tilney, Mayflower Pligrims.

After graduating from St. Lawrence University he studied music in Berlin and Paris. In 1866 he became organist of old Trinity Church, New York, and two years later took charge of the music of three churches in St. Louis. From 1887 to 1894 he was musical director at the Peddie Memorial Church, Newark, N. J., and from 1894 until 1896 at the Baptist Tempie in Brooklyn. Since then he had been organist at Calvary Baptist Church, Manhattan.

He was a member of the Royal College of Organists, London; the American Guild of Organists and the American College of Musicians, and served for eight years as president of the Music Teachers National Association.
